MARDOC SUGGESTION OF REMAND (No. 41)

AND NOW, this 20th day of October, 2016, it is hereby ORDERED that, upon review of the cases listed in Exhibit "A," attached, and based on the factors identified in the Court's Administrative Order No. 18, No. 01-875 (E.D. Pa. April 30, 2009), ECF No. 6197, the Court finds that:

- a.) Plaintiffs have complied with MDL 875 Administrative Order No. 25, No. 02-875 (E.D. Pa. June 23, 2013), ECF No. 2614.
- b.) The parties have completed their obligations under the Rule 16 orders issued by the Court (see No. 02-875, ECF Nos. 594-600).
- c.) All discovery has been completed.
- d.) The Court has adjudicated all outstanding motions, including dispositive motions.
- e.) Rule 18 settlement discussions have been exhausted in the transferee court. Some of the parties have indicated that additional settlement discussions may be beneficial after the case is remanded to the transferor court.

f.) The Court finds that the cases are prepared for trial without delay once on the transferor court's docket, subject to any trial-related motions in limine (including Daubert challenges).

g.) The remaining viable defendants for trial in each case, are listed in Exhibit "B," attached.

h.) The Court issued an opinion on punitive damages on July 9, 2014 (see No. 02-875, ECF No. 4376). Any punitive damages claims that remain in an individual case are also remanded to the transferor court.¹

Accordingly, the Court SUGGESTS that the cases listed in Exhibit "A," attached, be REMANDED to their respective United States District Courts from which they were transferred for ¹ On the Court's "land-based" docket, the MDL 875 Court has severed and retained most claims for punitive damages prior to the cases being remanded to the transferor courts. See In re Collins, 233 F.3d 809, 810 (3d Cir. 2000) ("It is responsible public policy to give priority to compensatory claims over exemplary punitive damage windfalls; this prudent conservation more than vindicates the Panel's decision to withhold punitive damage claims on remand."); see also In re Roberts, 178 F.3d 181 (3d Cir. 1999). The maritime docket (MARDOC) has proceeded along a different track. See Sanchez v. Various Defendants, No. 02-875, 2014 WL 3353044, at *1 (E.D. Pa. July 9, 2014) (Robreno, J.). All remaining MARDOC cases should be closed or remanded in the near future. Accordingly, the Court deems it appropriate to remand all remaining claims in each of the MARDOC cases.

resolution of all matters pending within each case.²

² In five of these cases (Jacobson, 11-33888, Deosca, 11-33892, Clarke, 11-33899, Admundson, 11-33902, and Foote, 11-33908) (as well in several other similar cases not at issue here), Plaintiffs assert that this Court should vacate its rulings dismissing various Defendants due to lack of personal jurisdiction in light of the recent non-precedential Third Circuit Court of Appeals opinion, In re: Asbestos Prod. Liab. Litig., No. 15-1387, 2016 WL 4395353 (3d Cir. Aug. 18, 2016). ECF No. 4927. In all five of these cases, the Court entered the dismissal orders on October 10, 2014. Plaintiffs' request, docketed September 22, 2016, was filed nearly two years afterwards.

Plaintiffs contend that because these five cases are factually identical to those discussed in the Third Circuit's opinion wherein the Court found that Defendants had waived personal jurisdiction, this Court should vacate the orders dismissing Defendants and reinstate the claims against them. The Court views this request as one for reconsideration. See Favia v. Indiana Univ. of Pennsylvania, 7 F.3d 332, 337 (3d Cir. 1993) (asserting that a court "must look beyond the motion's caption to its substance"); see also Migliore v. Archie, No. 11-cv-4018, 2014 WL 2738222, at *3 (E.D. Pa. June 17, 2014) (providing that "a party may not avoid both the filing deadlines of a motion for reconsideration and the legal requirements of such a motion by disguising such a motion as an amended pleading or another motion") (internal quotation marks omitted).

In that Plaintiffs' request was filed long after the fourteen day reconsideration deadline set in Loc. R. Civ. P. 7.1(g), the Court denies the request. Instead, Plaintiffs may appeal the dismissal orders at the end of the cases, as is their right regarding any of the orders this Court enters.

In appropriate circumstances, a district court may "waive a requirement of its local rules." United States v. Eleven Vehicles, Their Equip. & Accessories, 200 F.3d 203, 215 (3d Cir. 2000). Specifically, "a district court can depart from the strictures of its own local procedural rules where (1) it has a sound rationale for doing so, and (2) so doing does not unfairly prejudice a party who has relied on the local rule to his detriment." Id.

The Court concludes that there is no sound rationale for deviating from the applicable rules of procedure in this instance and that doing so could create unfair prejudice to Alternatively, the parties in each case have seven (7) days within which to consent to a trial before an Article III or Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. In such an event, if consent is granted, a trial will be scheduled within sixty (60) days, on a date convenient to the parties in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the Suggestion of Remand will be Defendants. Although Plaintiffs contend that the cases are "factually identical," Defendants dispute this contention as well as the persuasiveness of the Third Circuit's decision. Without significant additional briefing, the Court cannot decisively conclude whether the factual scenarios are sufficiently identical such that the Third Circuit's decision might have application. Such an exercise would unduly delay cases that are otherwise ready for remand and trial on the merits. As stated, Plaintiffs' opportunity to challenge these rulings will occur once the cases are concluded.

Moreover, it is not uncommon that persuasive (or even precedential) authority arises in the years after a decision has been filed that might have impacted the court's conclusions had that authority been in existence at the time of the ruling. However, a court cannot revisit every decision it has made every time a possibly relevant case is decided. Indeed, that is one reason the Local Rules limit the time frame for filing motions for reconsideration. This is especially true in an MDL where one decision might affect hundreds or even thousands of cases.

These are complex long-standing cases with multiple issues and parties represented by sophisticated counsel who expect and depend upon compliance with the federal procedural rules. "Faithful adherence to the Local Rules of Civil Procedure is particularly important" in such a situation. U.S. ex rel. Streck v. Allergan, Inc., 288 F.R.D. 88, 91 (E.D. Pa. 2012). The Court will not deviate from the rules without a very strong showing of need. In this situation, the Court concludes that adherence to the rules is necessary "to ensure the fair and efficient administration of justice" and that there is insufficient justification for waiving the time limit established in Loc. R. Civ. P. 7.1(g). Id.

vacated as to that case.

It is further ORDERED that all viable (non-bankrupt) defendants who are not identified in Exhibit "B" as a pending defendant in each case are DISMISSED from the respective case(s).

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Status of the case that has been transferred from the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

This case has been transferred back to the transferor court, from the MDL 875 Court in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Cases that are remanded to transferor courts are ordinarily ready for trial, pursuant to this Court's Administrative Order No. 18 (see <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875d.asp>).

Specific information regarding the history of a specific case while it was in the MDL 875 Court can be found in the Suggestion of Remand (above) that the MDL Court submitted to the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation in connection with its Order.

History of MDL 875, In re: Asbestos Products Liability Litigation

MDL 875, In re: Asbestos Products Liability Litigation, involves issues relating to personal injury damages caused by asbestos products. It currently consists of about 3,000 cases transferred by the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, which has been transferring cases to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania since 1991. Each case typically consists of claims by multiple plaintiffs against multiple defendants. Since its inception, the litigation has involved more than 100,000 cases and up to ten million claims, including land-based and maritime claims ("MARDOC").

Beginning with Administrative Order No. 12 (see <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875d.asp>) in 2008, the Court initiated an aggressive, pro-active policy to facilitate the processing of cases. The policy involves giving newly transferred cases scheduling orders; setting cases for settlement conferences; having motion hearings; and remanding trial-ready cases to transferor courts, or, in the alternative, holding trials in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (if so requested by the parties). Administrative Order No. 25 serves the same purpose for MARDOC cases.

Resources available for transferor courts on the MDL 875 website

More information about the history of MDL 875 can be found on the Eastern District of Pennsylvania's MDL 875 website at <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875a.asp>. Additionally, all Administrative Orders issued in this litigation (including current Orders and those no longer in effect) can be found at <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875d.asp>.

Also on the website is an Excel spreadsheet of all decisions issued by the Presiding Officer on substantive and procedural matters since 2008 (see <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875n.asp>). This spreadsheet is updated regularly, and it can be sorted by jurisdiction, case caption, subject matter, party name, etc. It is also word searchable. The MDL-875 Court intends this spreadsheet to be a helpful resource for transferor courts addressing issues similar to those already addressed by the MDL-875 Court.

Other options available to assist the Transferor Court with legal research include searchable databases created by LexisNexis and Westlaw. Directions on how to access these databases can be found on <http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875n.asp>.
